WOODS ADDS TEN AUTO SQUADS TO STRIKE PATROL

Walkout of Milk Drivers Gives Police More "L" Train Shot At.

Because of the strike of the Borden milk wagon drivers, Commissioner Woods added ten automobiles to the patrol squad of forty-six which has been making flying trips through Manhattan and the Bronx since the strike began.

As the patrol system worked out early today, it enabled Police Headquarters to respond to a call from the Borden offices with three automobiles carrying fifteen men within ten minutes after the call was received, and several hands of strikers who were going about in automobiles ordering drivers from milk wagons were scattered and driven off.

Twenty automobile patrol posts have been established in Brooklyn and Queens.

Half of the 200 temporarily appointed policemen were put at work on crossings with regular policemen at 5 o'clock and the rest at noon.

Scattered instances of stone-throwing at elevated trains were reported to the police. Samuel Racheison and Ethel Racheison of No. 152 Monroe street and Edward Gilligan of No. 145 East One Hundred and Eighty-seventh street were cut by broken glass when a Third Avenue train was stopped between Forty-fifth and Forty-seventh street.

A number of bottles broke windows in a train at Sixth Avenue and Fifty-fourth street and five other Third Avenue trains were attacked, though no one was hurt.

Shots were fired at One Hundred and Forty-fifth street and Third Avenue while a train was passing. So far as learned, the train was not hit. Sergeant McCoy of the Alexander Avenue Station arrested two men running from the spot. One, Owen Whalen of No. 390 East One Hundred and Forty-fourth street, a striker, had a revolver in his possession from which two shots had been fired, according to McCoy.

Ninety days in the Workhouse was the sentence imposed on John Smith of No. 1372 Avenue A, a former Third Avenue trackwalker, in Yorkville Court today for strike disorder. He was arrested on a Second Avenue train while trying to scare a guard into leaving his train.

ATTACKS APPOINTMENT BY JUSTICE CROPSY

In his brief to the Appellate Division today asking the removal of a committee appointed by Justice James C. Cropsy of the Supreme Court, for the estate of Miss Julia P. Borden, Attorney George W. Wingate referred to Justices Barnard, Cardozo and McHugh, of the Third period, who were impeached. Mr. Wingate was careful to state that he did not impugn for a moment the motives of Justice Cropsy in making the appointment.

The relatives of Miss Borden want Alfred Dykstra appointed a committee for her which George E. Quinby, Mr. brother-in-law, died. Mr. Quinby had administered the $300,000 estate for fifteen years. Instead, Justice Cropsy appointed John T. McGovern.

Mr. Wingate in his brief refers to the Justice mentioned and adds:

"In this case no personal corruption is alleged. Nevertheless, for a Justice of the Supreme Court to place the person and estate of an incompetent against the wishes of her family and make an appointment for the purpose of violating a friend, is a flagrant violation of ethics."

"GIMBEL—NEW YORK"

The Standard Men's Clothes Styles of America

We announce the first showing of correct Autumn and Winter clothes for young men of all ages in New York.

We announce broader selections, larger stocks, better tailoring than ever, but the same high standard of New York style that has "made" GIMBEL clothing.

GIMBEL—New York Clothes are not created within the narrow confines of a single tailor shop or the large plant of a single "famous" manufacturer, but GIMBEL standards require most all good clothes makers to share in our assortments.

The best product of the best clothes makers in America—and GIMBEL buying influence has access to practically all lines—constitute these new stocks.

We are not clothes makers, but clothes critiques, and we select for New York men—the best dressed men in the land—the clothes which experience has taught us they want regardless of price.

Yet, Three-Store Purchasing Power puts GIMBEL prices down to the level of average clothes.

Men's Autumn and Winter Suits $19.50 to $45

Men's Autumn and Winter Overcoats $19.50 to $75

The Same High Standard that of in in GIMBELS men's clothes are found in GIMBELS Clothes for Boys and Young Men
